Part 2

Term	Definition/Description
Full-Time Graduate Student	A graduate student must be enrolled in 9 or more credits to be considered full-time. A Credential student must be enrolled in 12 or more credits to be considered full-time.
Full-Time Undergraduate Student	An undergraduate student must be enrolled in 12 or more credits to be considered full-time.
Graduation Rate	The percentage of students in a given cohort graduating within a time period of 4, 5 or 6 years. Six years, or 150% of normal 4-year time-to-degree, is the typical measurement for a first-time, full-time degree-seeking cohort's graduation rate. The number of students in the initial/entry cohort is the denominator of the rate; the number of students graduating is the numerator of the rate.
IPEDS	"IPEDS" stands for Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System. The core postsecondary education data collection program for NCES—a system of surveys designed to collect data from all primary providers of postsecondary education. IPEDS is a single, comprehensive system designed to encompass all institutions and educational organizations whose primary purpose is to provide postsecondary education. The IPEDS system is built around a series of interrelated surveys to collect institution-level data in such areas as enrollments, program completions, faculty, staff, and finances.
First Year (IPEDS) Cohort	The incoming first-time full-time degree seeking undergraduate group/cohort entering in fall; this is the initial/entry cohort in graduation rate calculations.
Lecture	An organized course offered for credit, identified by discipline and number, meeting at a stated time or times in a classroom or similar setting, and not a subsection such as a laboratory or discussion session. (All Lecture and Non-Lecture classes in Class Size Comparison excludes distance learning classes and noncredit classes and individual instruction such as dissertation or thesis research, music instruction, or one-to-one readings; excludes students in independent study, cooperative programs, internships, foreign language taped tutor sessions, practicums, and all students in one-on-one classes.)

NEXUS	For this current academic year, NEXUS refers to the RN to BSN program.
Other/Unknown, Other/Special Status, or Undeclared/Special Status	This is an extra category used for classifying students whose information is conflicting, missing, or not declared that can not be considered in any listed categories.
